Intelligence/Information: Officers stopped NY REg

VTL charges. When oficers ran the operator license it was discovered that the driver had an Order of Protection ordering the defendant, who was the front seat passenger, to stay away from her.

Broadway & Memorial. The suspect fled from the officers & as the vehicle slowed down on Memorial a passenger leapt from the moving vehicle. The passenger was detained but not arrested. The driver, postinued to lead officers on a pursuit onto the I-190 South. The officers abandoned the chase but after notifying neighboring agencies the Erie County Sheriff's Department chased the defendant from the Town of Evans into the Town of Brant where he crashed the vehicle & fled on foot. The Sheriff's Department was able to locate the subject & placed him under arrest. The subject is going to have charges from both the Town of Hamburg Police & the Erie County Sheriff's Department. Tomorrow Housing officers will be placing charges on the defendant who is currently at the hospital due to injuries he suffered in the car crash.

- Officers assisted on a shots fired call at Dodge & Wohlers.

- Assisted C District in the search for District officers were attempting to take the subject into custody when he swung at them & then fled on foot. The suspect is still outstanding.

Patroled BMHA properties in the Langfield Projects, Schaeffer Village, Lakeview, Busti, Prospect & West Ave.
